Connect with the community in Venice on April 20

A "Community Connection Day" with a focus on families and children will be held in Venice on Saturday, April 20. The free event will take place from 10 a.m.-noon at the Frances T. Bourne Jacaranda Library, 4143 Woodmere Park Blvd., Venice. Community Connection Day is designed to help develop a stronger sense of community in Venice. There will be door prizes and refreshments.

"This is the fourth Community Connection Day in Venice," said Paula Carney, Chair of event planning. "We want to use this opportunity to connect families to our community's assets that support the needs of families and kids."

Event organizers say that free space is available to representatives of local businesses and education, government, faith-based, civic and health care organizations that have information to share with local residents.

This event is sponsored by the Laurel/Osprey/Venice/Nokomis Community Health Action Team (LOVN CHAT), the city of Venice, Jacaranda Library and the Venice Area Chamber of Commerce.
